

Multiage Hebrew/Judaic Studies Teacher and Early Childhood Assistant

The Solomon Schechter Day School of Greater Hartford is seeking an outstanding teacher to join our faculty for the 2025 – 2026 academic year. Schechter uses a progressive multi-age educational model in which the teaching teams work together closely with each student and class. We welcome resumes from candidates with a deep knowledge of teaching Hebrew as a second language, understanding of children's development, and the desire to work as a member of a team to enhance our multi-age school.

Responsibilities of this full-time position include teaching three sections of Hebrew in various grades, using the TaLaM and Bishvil HaIvrit curricula. Skill with differentiated instruction is essential; we do have multiple sections, but abilities within each class still vary.

Job Status: full-time

Salary: $45,000-$55,000

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree, preferably in Hebrew, Jewish Education, or a related discipline;
- Fluency in Hebrew language and knowledge of the Jewish holidays;
- Passion for teaching about the joys of Jewish life and practice
- Demonstrated ability to engage students through highly differentiated instruction to meet each student's strengths and needs;
- The ability to communicate effectively with students, parents, and colleagues;
- A desire to collaborate with colleagues and work as part of a team;
- A passionate, student-centered approach to teaching;
- Experience integrating technology in the classroom and the creativity to work with students through various modalities;
- Willingness to participate fully in the life of a vibrant school community.

Excellent candidates will possess exceptional listening skills; sensitivity to the needs of others; comfort working within a fast paced, dynamic, school environment; strong personal integrity, excellent judgment, patience, and a strong work ethic; a growth mindset, built on the belief that professionals and students alike can grow and change.

The Solomon Schechter Day School of Greater Hartford is an independent Jewish day school located in the beautiful New England town of West Hartford, Connecticut. It is accredited by the Connecticut Association of Independent Schools. Schechter offers an exceptional, forward-thinking, student-centered education from early childhood through eighth grade. We inspire students to love learning, celebrate Jewish life, connect to each other, and build a vibrant future for themselves and their community in a joyful, challenging, and creative environment.

Schechter uses a progressive multi-age model approach to education, and our school is guided by Schechter's mission and core values of Chochmah (Wisdom), Lev Tov (Good Heartedness), Kehillah (Community), Mitzvot (Jewish Practice), and K'lal Yisrael (Unity of the Jewish People). Our faculty believes in the innate abilities of each student, and works in partnership with other members of the faculty and families to help each child grow.

Qualified candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume and references to the Hebrew Coordinator, Anat Climor, aclimor@ssds-hartford.org.
